

CONSTITUTION OF THE SLOVAK REPUBLIC

THE PREAMBLE

We, the Slovak Nation,

Bearing in mind the political and cultural heritage of our ancestors and the experience gained through centuries of struggle for our national existence and statehood,

Mindful of the spiritual heritage of Cyril and Methodius and the historical legacy of Great Moravia,

Recognizing the natural right of nations to self-determination,

Together with members of national minorities and ethnic groups living on the territory of the Slovak Republic,

In the interest of continuous peaceful cooperation with other democratic states,

Seeking the application of the democratic form of government, guarantees of a free life, development of spiritual culture and economic prosperity,

Thus we, the citizens of the Slovak Republic, have, herewith and through our representatives, adopted this Constitution:

CHAPTER ONE

Part One

BASIC PROVISIONS

Article 1

- (1) The Slovak Republic is a sovereign, democratic state governed by the rule of law. It is not bound to any ideology or religion.
- (2) The Slovak Republic acknowledges and adheres to general rules of international law, international treaties by which it is bound, and its other international obligations.

Article 2

- (1) The state power derives from citizens, who exercise it through their elected representatives or directly.
- (2) State bodies may act solely on the basis of the Constitution, within its scope and their actions shall be governed by procedures laid down by law.
- (3) Everyone may do what is not forbidden by a law and no one may be forced to do what the law does not enjoin.

(2) When exercising the powers of state administration, a municipality and a higher territorial unit may also issue generally binding regulations within their territory upon authorization by a law and within its limitations. Exercise of state administration transferred to a municipality or to a higher territorial unit by a law shall be directed and controlled by the government. A law shall lay down the details.

TITLE FIVE LEGISLATIVE POWER

Section One

THE NATIONAL COUNCIL OF THE SLOVAK REPUBLIC

Article 72

The National Council of the Slovak Republic shall be the sole constitutional and legislative body of the Slovak Republic.

Article 73

(1) The National Council of the Slovak Republic consists of 150 Members of Parliament, elected for a four-year period.

(2) The Members of Parliament are representatives of the citizens. They shall exercise their mandates individually and according to their best conscience and conviction. No orders bind them.

Article 74

(1) The Members of Parliament are elected by universal, equal and direct suffrage by secret ballot.

(2) Any citizen who has the right to vote, has attained 21 years of age and has permanent residency in the Slovak Republic is eligible to be elected to the National Council of the Slovak Republic.

(3) A law shall specify details relating to the election of the Members of Parliament.

Article 75

(1) A Member of Parliament participating in the meeting of the National Council of the Slovak Republic for the first time shall take the following oath: "I swear on my honour and conscience allegiance to the Slovak Republic. I will exercise my obligations dutifully in the interest of its citizens. I will abide by the Constitution and all other laws and I will make every effort to implement them."

(2) Any refusal to take the oath or any reservation thereof shall result in the loss of the mandate.

Article 76

The National Council of the Slovak Republic shall verify the legitimacy of election of the Members of Parliament.

Article 77

- (1) The post of a Member of Parliament is incompatible with the post of judge, prosecutor, public defender of rights, member of the Armed Forces, member of Armed Corps and member of the European Parliament.
- (2) If a Member of Parliament has been appointed member of the Government, his mandate shall not terminate within this period but shall not be exercised.

Article 78

- (1) No Member of Parliament shall be prosecuted for his voting in the National Council of the Slovak Republic or in its committees, not even after expiration of his or her mandate.
- (2) No Member of Parliament shall be prosecuted for statements presented in duration of the post in the National Council of the Slovak Republic or in its body, not even after expiration of his or her mandate. The Member of Parliament is subject to disciplinary powers of the National Council of the Slovak Republic. Civil responsibility of a Member of Parliament shall remain unaffected.
- (3) No Member of Parliament shall be prosecuted, sanctioned by any disciplinary measure or held in pre-trial detention without approval of the National Council of the Slovak Republic; however infringement proceedings can take place in cases stipulated by law. If the National Council of the Slovak Republic denies granting of such approval, the prosecution or pre-trial detention of a Member of Parliament shall be precluded during the term of his mandate. In such case, the period of limitation does not lapse in duration of the mandate.
- (4) If a Member of Parliament has been detained while committing a criminal offence, the competent body shall be obliged to notify the President of the National Council of the Slovak Republic immediately. If the Mandate and Immunity Committee of the National Council of the Slovak Republic does not approve the arrest consequently, the Member of Parliament must be released immediately.
- (5) In duration of the arrest, the mandate of a Member of Parliament is not terminated but shall not be exercised.

Article 79

Article 85

Any member of the Government of the Slovak Republic, or a principal official of other central body of state administration shall be obliged to participate in a meeting of the National Council of the Slovak Republic or in a meeting of a body thereof, if so requested by the National Council of the Slovak Republic or by a body thereof.

Article 86

The powers of the National Council of the Slovak Republic shall be particularly to:

- a) adopt the Constitution, constitutional laws and other laws, and to supervise their implementation,
- b) approve the treaties on a union of the Slovak Republic with other states and the repudiation of such treaties by a constitutional law,
- c) decide on a proposal for declaration of a referendum,
- d) before ratification to approve international treaties on human rights and fundamental freedoms, international political treaties, international treaties of military nature, international treaties from which a membership of the Slovak Republic in international organizations arises, international economic treaties of general nature, international treaties for whose exercise a law is necessary, and international treaties which directly confer rights or impose duties on natural persons or legal persons, and at the same time to decide on whether they are international treaties according to Art. 7 para. 5,
- e) establish Ministries and other governmental bodies,
- f) debate on the Programme Proclamation of the Government of the Slovak Republic, monitor the activities of the Government, as well as debate on vote of

- confidence regarding the Government or its individual member,
- g) approve the state budget, supervise budgetary policy and approve the final state budgetary account,
 - h) debate on basic issues relating to domestic, international, economic, social and other policies,
 - i) elect and recall the President and Vice-President of the Supreme Audit Office of the Slovak Republic and three members of the Judicial Council of the Slovak Republic,
 - j) declare war in the event of an act of aggression by parties hostile to the Slovak Republic or in the event that obligations under international joint defence treaties must be fulfilled, and after the end of war on concluding the peace,
 - k) give consent for despatching the military forces outside of the territory of the Slovak Republic, if it does not concern a case stated in Art. 119, letter p),
 - l) approve the presence of foreign military forces on the territory of the Slovak Republic.

Article 87

- (1) Draft laws may be introduced by the Committees of the National Council of the Slovak Republic, Members of Parliament and the Government of the Slovak Republic.
- (2) If the President of the Slovak Republic returns an act with comments, the National Council of the Slovak Republic shall discuss the act repeatedly and in case it is adopted, the act must be promulgated.
- (3) The Act shall be signed by the President of the Slovak Republic, the President of the National Council of the Slovak Republic and the Prime Minister of the Government of the Slovak Republic. If the National Council of the Slovak Republic, after repeated discussion, adopts the act even despite the comments of the President of the Slovak Republic, and the President of the Slovak Republic does not sign the act, the act shall be promulgated even without the signature of the President of the Slovak Republic.
- (4) An act shall enter into effect on its promulgation. Details on the promulgation of acts, of international treaties and legally binding acts of an international organization pursuant to Art. 7, para. 2 shall be laid down by a law.

Article 88

- (1) A proposal for a vote of no confidence in the Government of the Slovak Republic or in a member thereof shall be discussed by the National Council of the Slovak Republic, provided one fifth of its Members of Parliament so requires.
- (2) For vote of no confidence in the Government of the Slovak Republic or in a member thereof an absolute majority of all Members of Parliament shall be required.

Article 89

- (1) The President of the National Council of the Slovak Republic shall be elected or recalled by secret ballot with the consent of an absolute majority of all Members of Parliament. The President shall be responsible exclusively to the National Council of the Slovak Republic.
- (2) The President of the National Council of the Slovak Republic shall
 - a) convene and direct the meetings of the National Council of the Slovak Republic,
 - b) sign the Constitution, constitutional laws and other laws,
